

IPM Inspection Record

Name	Temperature	Date
Address	Humidity	Time
Rainfall

Plant (s)	Conditions at site (sun, shade, dry, poor drainage, construction, etc.)	Date Plant Was installed	Symptoms on plant	Extent of damage- (L, M, H)	Signs of insects or disease	Beneficial insects observed	Phenological * events at site	Recommendation/ treatment	Post Treatment Evaluation/ date

Phenology is the study of easily observed stages of plant development. A phenological event is an observed stage of plant development.*

Source: Creating Healthy Landscapes, IPM Fact Sheet # 6 – Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences Cooperative Extension